Own It Sr. is a female identifying mentorship program for teens 13-17 that will introduce sewing, painting and live drawing techniques. Fashion designer, Lex Brown, will introduce the fundamentals of sewing and fashion design. Participants will visit Toronto's Fashion District and choose their own fabrics to create their own sustainable bags and visit the Textile Museum to be inspired by local artists. Students will also work with multi-media artist Ethan Hanzel and studio artist Raz Latif to learn the fundamentals of painting and live drawing.
